While this list of duties contains items which a teacher will be expected to perform on a regular basis, the nature of ministry work means other tasks not on this list may arise, which will require this person's assistance. We strive for a team environment at Shepherd of the Hills, meaning we all often help where needed, even if it is not within the scope of a "normal" day. While these kinds of tasks will be the exception and not the rule, the expectation is help will be provided if, when, and where needed.

This position is considered a security-sensitive position due to the proximity of children required. As such, a background will be required as part of the screening process in accordance with state law, and any offer of employment will be contingent upon satisfactory background.

As a church, we reserve the right to hire those individuals who share and affirm our doctrinal beliefs.
